

Throw open the bi-fold doors and let the sun shine in. This shaker-style Bovingdon kitchen from Cue & Co London features polished concrete worktops and is hand-painted in The Little Greene Paint Company's Dark Lead grey. The kitchen's neutral tones allow the garden's colourful hues to really stand out. From £35,000. cueandco.com

Summer style

Here comes summer... with the kitchen being the place we spend most of our time, when planning your kitchen don't forget to maximise on any great views you may have, and ensure you plan its design so in better weather you can optimise outside dining space by simply sliding open the doors and spilling outside...